

Welcome to Los Angeles

The City of Angels is a modern, trendsetting city with diverse residents, a rich global culture, unique landscape, and fun in the sun weather nearly 300 days a year. It covers 472 square miles - from the Pacific Ocean to the Hollywood Hills, the Downtown skyline through the San Fernando Valley, and further south to the harbor area. The hardest part is deciding where to begin.

Hollywood. As the entertainment capital of the world, Los Angeles offers fun ways for star-struck visitors to immerse themselves in the glitz and glamour of Hollywood. Movie buffs will love the behind-the-scenes studio tours, celebrity home tours, and more while thrill-seekers will want to experience Universal Studios Hollywood.

Outdoors. Year-round fantastic weather, beautiful coastline, pristine beaches, and hundreds of miles of scenic biking and hiking trails provide lots of opportunities to get outdoors and explore the unique LA landscape.

LA Culture. The city's museum culture is second to none with world-renowned art, history, and science museums and its unique shopping scene covers everything from couture to celebrity vintage. Be sure to leave a little time to unwind like a local at one of the city's many world-class spas or hotel pools.

The pages that follow are a tool to discover and explore Los Angeles. You'll find a "how to" guide for using the Go Los Angeles® Card, information about each included attraction, special offers, and more. We hope that your visit to Los Angeles will be a lifelong memory. Enjoy your stay.

Getting around Los Angeles

Although cars are exalted in Southern California, Los Angeles boasts the second largest public transportation agency in the nation. A fleet of 2,000-plus environmentally friendly clean-burning CNG (Compressed Natural Gas)-powered buses crisscross the area. The Metro Day Pass is a convenient and cost-effective way to see LA. It allows for unlimited rides on the Metro Bus and Rail system on the day of purchase until 2 am the following day.

Visitors can hop onto the Metro Rail system and explore the city. The Red Line is the only subway in town and it links Downtown to Hollywood and the San Fernando Valley. Stops include Universal Studios HollywoodSM and the Hollywood Walk of Fame. The above-ground light-rail lines are Blue, Green and Gold. The Blue Line runs north and south between Los Angeles and Long Beach, home of the Queen Mary and the Aquarium of the Pacific. The Green Line crosses the Blue Line, running east and west between Norwalk and Redondo Beach. The Gold Line starts at Union Station in Downtown and runs to Pasadena. Visitors can route a customized bus and rail trip by using the Metro Trip Planner at www.metro.net. Just enter a starting point, destination, and the day and approximate time of travel. The trip planner then shows what line to take and where to take it. The new Expo line will be completed early 2016 which will allow riders to take the train from Santa Monica to downtown.

Los Angeles World Airports recently launched Union Station FlyAway motorcoach service between Downtown LA's Union Station and LAX. The FlyAway operates every half hour from 5 a.m. to 1 a.m. and every hour from 1:00 am to 5:00 am. The 20 mile ride costs $8 one way for adults and is free for children under 2 years. The motorcoaches have luggage storage and porter service, and travel in carpool lanes. Visitors arriving at LAX and riding the FlyAway to Union Station can then take a DASH shuttle into Downtown LA, the Metro Red Line subway into Downtown, Hollywood or the east San Fernando Valley, or the Metro Gold Line light rail to Pasadena.

Whether traveling by car, bus, rail or on foot, Los Angeles offers sunny skies and starry nights. It's possible to enjoy great shopping, museum hopping, or just sinking your feet into the cool sand on a warm beach. This singular city has it all.

Frequently Asked Questions

While our guidebooks are accurate at time of printing, attractions may change their hours of operation at any time. It's a good idea to call before you go.

Q: Does my Go Los Angeles Card include transportation between attractions?

A: No, the Go Los Angeles Card does not include transportation to and from each attraction; however, we do offer a special online discount through Enterprise Rent-A-Car for Go Los Angeles Card customers (see page 23 for details). You'll also find tips on getting around Los Angeles on pages 5.

Q: Does my Go Los Angeles Card expire?

A: Your first transaction (attraction visit) must occur within one year of purchasing your card. Once your card is activated, your card is valid for the number of days purchased over a 14 day period and then the card will expire.

Q: What if I have a problem with my Go Los Angeles Card?

A: First, make sure you're familiar with how much time is on your card, and whether or not it should be valid. Next, if you have an issue with your card, please call our customer service line at (800) 887-9103. Be prepared to explain where you purchased the card, and the unique serial number listed on the back of your card. Our customer service team will ask you some questions to find out how to best serve you.

Q: How do I use the Go Los Angeles Card?

A: Simply show up at the attraction and present your valid Go Los Angeles Card for the offer noted on the attraction page in the guidebook. Pay attention to notes or any special circumstances listed in the guidebook, such as seasonal operating hours, or closures on holidays.

Q: How does the bonus work for Universal Studios?

A: If you purchase a 3, 4, 5, or 7-day Go Los Angeles Card, you can make up to three visits to Universal Studios in addition to all the standard product inclusions. Your three visits must be used on your valid card days (so for instance, you can choose to go three different days on a 3, 4, 5, or 7-day card within the 14 day period when your card is valid). On a 7-day card, you can choose to go to Universal 3 separate times, and then you will have 4 other days to visit other area attractions.

If you have any questions, issues, or comments, please call our Go Card Customer Care Line at (866) 628-3053.
