The information about you on this form is collected to determine your eligibility for a temporary Visa or Permit. This information may also be used to determine whether you may board a flight to come to, or return to New Zealand. Your personal information will not be shared with airline check-in agents, however a boarding message will be returned to the airline check-in agent based on information you have supplied on this form.

The main recipient of the information is the New Zealand Immigration Service of the Department of Labour but it may also be shared with other Government agencies, which are entitled to this information under applicable legislation.

The address of the New Zealand Immigration Service is PO Box 3705, Wellington, New Zealand. This is not where your application should be sent.

The collection of the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 1987 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. The supply of the information is voluntary, but if you do not supply it then your application is likely to be declined.

You will, if you come to New Zealand, have a right to access the information about you held by New Zealand Immigration Service and to ask for any of it to be corrected if you think that is necessary.

Your application should be sent to your nearest branch of the New Zealand Immigration Service or New Zealand Embassy or High Commission.

Advance Passenger Screening

- New Zealand has implemented a system designed to enhance the security of New Zealand's borders. You may be refused permission to board your flight to come to, or return to, New Zealand if:
 - you do not have an appropriate visa to enter New Zealand; or
 - your visa has expired; or
 - your visa has not been transferred to your current/new passport or the passport being used to enter New Zealand.
- To minimise any disruption to your travel plans please ensure your travel documents are up-to-date and that you have the appropriate and current visa. if you have any questions check www.immigration.govt.nz
